

JOURNAL OF THE ASSOCIATION OF CHRISTIAN ECONOMISTS

No. 36, November 2006

From the Editor:

The current issue opens with a roundtable discussion on three key questions relating to the future of Christian Economics. These were discussed at the ACE conference in July. Donald Hay, Andrew Britton, Michael Pollitt and your journal editor offer our reflections on this topic.

This issue also includes two full length articles. Edward Carter explores the work and relevance of Joseph Schumpeter and Ben Cooper studies the relationship of divine and human choices, a paper that Ben originally presented at the July 2005 Study Group.

Please note the advertisement overleaf for our annual small research grant competition with up to £500 available to fund project expenses.

Michael Pollitt is our Convenor and Study Group Organiser and will be delighted to receive offers to present papers at the next conference at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, 6-7th July 2007.

The ACE web site has been resurrected thanks to the efforts of Jonathan Thomas. It contains back issues of the journal and other useful information. Have a look at <http://www.christian-economists.org.uk/>. The website for the American ACE is located at <http://www.gordon.edu/ace/>.

Submissions for publication in the ACE journal are very welcome. Please feel free to send shorter reflection pieces as well as regular length articles and replies or comments on previously published papers. The next issue of the journal is planned for the Spring of 2007.

Ian Smith
School of Economics and Finance
St Salvator's College
St Andrews
Fife, KY16 9AL

Tel. +44 (0)1334 462430
Fax. +44 (0)1334 462444
Email: is@st-and.ac.uk

ACE Small Research Grant Fund

2006-07 Call for Proposals

The Association of Christian Economists UK (ACE) aims to promote discussion and research on economics and related topics from a distinctively Christian perspective. With this aim in mind, we are holding an annual competition for one or more awards of up to £500 to support research consistent with the aims of ACE. Proposals would be expected to support a small research project or facilitate a research network leading to an article worthy of publication in the ACE Journal. It is envisaged that grants might be requested in order to pay for direct research expenses incurred such as the hire of a student research assistant, travel or information costs. Applicants should be current members of ACE UK. Applications are considered throughout the year and decisions on funding will be taken collectively by the officers of the society.

To apply, contact Michael Pollitt (m.pollitt@jims.cam.ac.uk) with a one page proposal.

ISSN 0956-3067

JOURNAL OF THE ASSOCIATION
OF CHRISTIAN ECONOMISTS

No. 36, November 2006

Contents

Donald Hay Andrew Britton Ian Smith Michael Pollitt	Whither Christian economics? A roundtable discussion	1
Ben Cooper	Divine versus human choices: relieving the tension with some choice theory	13
Edward Carter	Joseph Schumpeter and Christian Economics	35